

Holy!

A video, a book and prints documenting an action in public space (4-9/2012).

53.44538 14.54730, 53.44369 14.50130, 53.41387 14.54315, 53.43897 14.57231 are the specific coordinates of four different places I lived in Szczecin, Poland, where I have placed four different linocut stickers of a human figure based on a 1:1 self portrait. Each figure depicts one of the anatomical systems: circulatory, skeletal, nervous and muscular.

The documentation presented in the video was created during the four months since the installation.

This is a short text that accompanied the show Holy! Presenting the work alongside other pieces relating to the body:

This exhibition is the effect of the artist's recent work dedicated to the somatic experience of reality. Anchored inside the temporal world and simultaneously spirited - the body is a liminal place, where the supposition of matters' sanctity becomes fulfilled. Human figure - the exhibition's main character - is both an author and an image - using the body, she makes pictures. Thanks to them she comes alive as an icon - a reservoir of presence, an imperfect reflection of the world.
