

LU YANG

Lu Yang (b. 1984, Shanghai) holds a Master's degree from the New Media Department of the China Academy of Art in Hangzhou, having studied under Zhang Peili. Her experimental multimedia work uses video, 3D animation, scientific drawings, illustrations and installations to address topics related to science and technology, biology, religion and psychology and most notably to comment on issues of control in modern society. Her shocking combinations of grotesque imagery and deadpan instruction-manuals have made her the most controversial young Chinese multimedia artist of her generation. Recent exhibitions include various solo-shows such as the recent 'KIMOKAWA Cancer Baby' at Ren Space in Shanghai (2014), and a group exhibition 'ASVOFF - A Shaded View on Fashion Film' at the Centre Pompidou in Paris (2013).
