

MAY 2012

BERLIN CELEBRATES PERFORMANCE ART!

Dive into the rich and diverse world of Performance Art in Berlin! This is the calendar version of the MPA-B 2012 programme presenting over 100 different projects at 67 locations throughout the city, featuring innovative and experimental work by hundreds of artists, curators, producers, networks, organisations and initiatives from Berlin and around the world.

Running for the whole of May, MPA-B 2012 truly reflects the creative force injected by independent artists into the city's performance art scene with an eclectic programme of indoor and outdoor performances, workshops, lectures, actions, site-specific interventions, talks, performance art marathons, experimental music and unique audience encounters and interactions.

MPA-B is a month-long platform dedicated to highlighting, promoting and interconnecting the wealth and diversity of independent, contemporary and experimental Performance Art practices thriving in Berlin.

Running for its second year in May 2012, MPA-B brings together artists, curators, producers, venues, networks and organisations, which operate beyond and across the boundaries of institutionalised and mainstream performing arts structures. The only Performance Art project of its kind in Germany and beyond, MPA-B brings experimental and groundbreaking performances to the general and specialized public alike. With its diverse programme and geographical outreach, MPA-B opens up the world of Performance Art to as wide and diverse an audience as possible. It also exposes and supports the work of artists, curators, and producers by serving network development, artists' mobility, cross-cultural encounters and collaborations.

Enjoy the Month of Performance Art in Berlin!

Jörn J. Burmester, Francesca Romana Ciardi, Nathalie Fari, Florian Feigl, Andrés Galeano, Stefan Riebel, Lara Sanchez and Joël Verwimp — organising team of MPA-B
